

Community Conversation

Cuba en el Siglo XXI: Cultura e Identidad en movimiento Cuba, XXI Century: Culture and Identity in Motion

Join the conversation and share your thoughts...
A look at Cuba in the 21st century!

Beyond salsa, rumba, cigars, rum and sunshine! This conversation will debate stereotypes and preconceived notions of Cuban culture and identity. We will explore the constructs of Cuban identities before and after 1959, and the implications of the Cuban Revolution in the development of a new culture that is inclusive and participatory.

Date: Friday, July 7, 2017

Time: 6:00 - 8:00 PM

Location: Toronto Public Library -
Lillian H. Smith Library
(239 College St, Toronto, ON)

Moderators: Professor Julio Fonseca
&
Professor Roberta Iannacito-Provenzano
(Department of Languages & Linguistics, York University)

Everyone is welcome!
Register Here

If you require further info, please contact gce@yorku.ca

liberal arts &
professional studies

YORK
UNIVERSITÉ
UNIVERSITY