

Department of Social Science

Work & Labour Studies

Work & Labour Speaker Series

Immigrant Women and the Challenge of Precarious Work

Thursday, September 27, 2018 from 3:00-5:00pm (Ross South 802)

Since 2009, the South Asian Women's Rights Organization (SAWRO) has been assisting marginalized immigrant women working and living in Toronto's East Danforth area fight for employment equity, including full funding of low-income childcare subsidies, living wages and changes to labour laws for stronger protection of vulnerable workers.

- Sultana Jahangir (Executive Director, SAWRO)
  - Rezwana Ava Zerin (Women's Leader)
  - Syeda Sabiha Yesmin (Women's Leader)
    - Alisha Alam (Teen Activist)
    - Mashiat Mimosa (Teen Activist)

---

Also, please join us beforehand at the Global Labour Research Centre's Open House from 1:30-3:30pm in N836A - Ross Building - 8th floor

---

For more information,
please contact Carlo Fanelli:
fanelli@yorku.ca

wkls.sosc.laps.yorku.ca