

Dept of Social Science – Job Talk

Criminology Program (Teaching)

Dr. Deana Simonetto

Date:

Wednesday,
February 13

Times:

Mock First-Year Lecture

10:00 am
– 11:30 am

Presentation of a Fourth-Year Course

Proposal
2:00 pm
– 3:30 pm

Location:
701 Ross
South

All sessions will be open to faculty & students.

Light refreshments will be provided.

The morning session will be on the theme of Morality & Crime focusing on drug scares.

The afternoon session will be on the theme: The football concussions “crisis” and the Justice System

Deana Simonetto received her PhD from McMaster University and has taught in a Department of Criminology for three years. She has developed a range of courses, for example, crime and deviance in sports, addictions and crime, and media, crime and law. Her research focuses on the concussion “crisis” in sports from the perspective of athletes’ families. She has publications with Qualitative Sociology Review, The American Sociologist, and Studies in Symbolic Interaction.