JOB SEARCH in 2020

The skills required for success in today's labour market

with

MARIE-HÉLÈNE BUDWORTH

Are you thinking about your job search? You are not alone. These are competitive times. Preparing for your first professional job search is a daunting task. This presentation will provide you with tips for success. The key learning points are drawn directly from research conducted by Professor Budworth. They apply directly to York students in both the local and international labour market. Learn from the experiences of your colleagues.

Marie-Hélène Budworth is an Associate Professor of Human Resource Management. Her program of research is focused on job search and access to opportunities. She is particularly interested in how individuals succeed in employment contexts when faced with significant external challenges or barriers.

Come with questions and be prepared to walk away with practical tips.
