

The African Studies Program

presents a panel discussion

Africa and COVID-19: African Bodies at Home and Abroad

Panelists

- Dr. Uzoma Odera Okoye, Professor of Social Work, Faculty of Social Science, University of Nigeria
- Bashiratu Kamal, Feminist, Activist, Gender and Labour Specialist, Gender Officer of the General Agricultural Workers' Union, Ghana
- Dr. John Idriss Lahai, Independent Consultant, post-conflict development and peacebuilding in Sierra Leone
- Dr. Mukovhe Masutha, Postdoctoral Research Fellow, University of Johannesburg, South Africa

Moderator

- Dr. Nathanael Ojong, Assistant Professor, Department of Social Science, York University, Canada

November 26, 12:00 – 14:00 (EST)

<https://yorku.zoom.us/j/99272287247>

liberal arts & professional studies | YORK
UNIVERSITY UNIVERSITY