

Marlon Reid Biography (cont.)

Reid is a tireless and committed community leader and has served as president of the Canadian Association of Urban Financial Professionals (CAUFP) as well as Chair of the organization's Corporate Advisory Board. He received appointments to the AGO Next Committee of the Art Gallery of Ontario, YMCA Leadership Council for Innovative Education, the Financial Services Advisory Board to the Rotman School of Management and recently completed his time as both director on the Toronto Public Library Foundation Board and president of the Toronto Regional Council of the University of Ottawa. Reid also served as coach for the only Canadian team competing in the National Black MBA Association's Leaders of Tomorrow MBA Case Competition, and currently sits as a director for the 100 Strong Foundation Board on which he serves as treasurer.

Reid holds an undergraduate commerce degree from York University, a law degree from University of Ottawa and a Master of Finance degree from the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management.